Thank you, very much.

Additionally, because of significant security issues, I understand my point of “abduction” must remain secret and never disclosed to any Primate Resident of Planet OP 327, known locally as “Earth”.

I openly acknowledge my understanding, that my “secure confidentiality obligation” is on-going and cannot be rescinded until such time as I have been declared legally deceased and a period of seventy (70) Earth years has passed.

I fully and freely swear and affirm to abide by the above “secure confidentiality obligation” listed instructions and understand that failure to respect these directions will result in my next “abduction” being far less pleasant and may result in “electronic attitude adjustment” *sticks being used to remind me of the seriousness of this agreement and ensure my compliance, or, in some instances, permanent diarrhea.
